Among those reported to be mortally wounded was Mr. P. Smith, proprietor of the Mount Pleasant House. An investigation into the affair revealed that two boys had fought until their jackets dropped to pieces, and a row occurred, during which Mr. Smith received a stab in the neck, which did not in the least interfere with his duties.

ELECTION OF MUNICIPAL OFFICERS.

MEETING OF COUNCIL LAST NIGHT.

The Pillsbury Caucus Ticket.—Popularity of D. T. Corbin, who is elected City Attorney, and receives One Vote for every other Office—Factionous Remarks of Alderman T. J. Mackey, which fail to secure his election as Floor Inspector—List of Officers.

THE COUNCIL CHAMBER.

Last night—the time appointed to fill the city offices declared vacant by an ordinance of Council in May last—found every member of the body in his seat. The aspirants crowded into the Council Chamber, through the doorway, sat on the window sills, with legs dangling outside, in each other's laps, hung by their arms and legs on the sides of the stairway leading up to the room in which sat the body soon to decide whether they should be exalted up to the seventh heaven by success or plunged into the "slough of despair" by defeat, and crowded on the street outside, all anxiously awaiting the decision. Inside of the Chamber there was perfect order, each member, especially the colored ones, being apparently profoundly impressed with the importance of the occasion, and determined to vote according to the dictates of his conscience, or the Mayor Pillsbury or Alderman Mackey had declared. The aspirants, most of whom were aspirants, like the Aldermen, held little conversation, but listened breathlessly and restlessly to whatever was uttered, and furiously glanced at the door of the Mayor's office, through which the incumbents of the city offices were constantly passing and repassing.

CALLED TO ORDER.

Thus the minutes dragged slowly by until a quarter to nine o'clock, when the Mayor came in, took the chair, and ordered the Clerk to call the roll. This was done, and Aldermen E. W. M. Mackey, Barrow, T. J. Mackey, Voigt, Collins, Cunningham, Giddings, Porter, Greene, white; and Hampton, Thorn, L. F. Wall, Molloy, Kinley, E. P. Wall, Small, Holloway, Brown, Howard, colored, promptly answered.

Mayor. This meeting was called for the purpose of filling the offices declared vacant by an ordinance in May last.

Alderman Cunningham. I move that we proceed with the election of city officers, and commence with the office of City Attorney.

The motion was put and unanimously carried.

Alderman Potter. I nominate the Hon. D. T. Corbin.

Alderman E. W. M. Mackey. I nominate Colonel R. W. Seymour.

Mayor. I have received from Mr. R. S. Tharin an application for the office.
